Host Your Own Fundraiser for Living Green!

Looking for a way to take local action on climate initiatives and support a greener future for Barrie?

With the power of digital and social media, it’s easier than ever to support Living Green by organizing your own in-person or virtual fundraiser.

Unlike traditional charity-hosted events like walks or runs, third-party fundraisers are led by passionate individuals, businesses, or community groups—just like you!

Whether it's a bake sale, trivia night, online auction, or any creative idea you have, your fundraiser will help drive real change.

You have the freedom to create, plan, and run your event!

Ready to get started?

Let’s make an impact together!

Hosting a third-party fundraiser for Living Green Barrie comes with many benefits, whether you're a company, organization, community group, or individual.

Here's how your business or organization can have a positive impact for both you and the environment:

Boost Your Brand & Reputation – Show your customers, clients, and employees that you care about sustainability and the community.

Engage Employees & Team Build – Hosting a fundraiser is a great way to bring your team together for a meaningful cause.

Attract Eco-Conscious Customers – Aligning with an environmental cause can enhance customer loyalty and attract like-minded supporters.

Positive Publicity – Gain visibility through event promotions, social media, and potential media coverage.

Hosting a third-party fundraiser for Living Green Barrie comes with many benefits, whether you're a company, organization, community group, or individual.

Here's how you and or your community group can have a positive impact for both you and the environment:

Make a Tangible Impact – Your efforts directly support environmental programs that create a greener, healthier community.

Build Connections – Bring friends, family, and community members together for a shared cause.

Express Your Passion – Share your commitment to sustainability by organizing a fundraiser that reflects your interests.

Gain Leadership & Event Planning Experience – Develop valuable skills while making a difference.